Good fortune

I've been trying to get good fortune
I've been trying to get some luck
But it seems to have deserted me
Stuck in the muck

I've been trying to get good fortune
I've been trying to get a break
There's too much static in my attic
I'm about to break

Good fortune, good fortune
Won't you come my way
Good fortune, good fortune
I need you today

I've been waiting in line so long
I've been waiting for my turn
But the queue keeps getting longer
I've got so much to learn
